Appendix 1. Community Conversation Planning Tool

Planning Timeline

4–5 months before
Organize your planning team and system map.

2–3 months before
Find your venue.
Choose the date and time of your event.
Decide on food, decorating, child care, and discussion questions.

6 weeks before
Invite participants through personal invitations, flyers, posters, press releases, e-invitations, and social media announcements.

2–4 weeks before
Gather all the materials you will need.

1 week before
Visit the venue for a final check. Make sure any technology you plan to use functions and that the planned layout will work in the space.

Day of the event
Give yourself plenty of time to arrive, set up, and solve any glitches that may occur.

1–7 days after
Follow up with participants through email, thanking them for attending.

2–3 weeks after
Bring the planning team together to harvest what was shared at the event.
Send event summary to all participants and other groups who would be interested in the community’s perspective on inclusion.
Follow up with any participants who offered to assist with a specific idea or initiative.
