

Below is a table that can be used to identify community partners. It is available to download on the Family Engagement Collaborative website at www.FECInclusion.org.

Directions: Identify key community partners, how best to engage with them, and what relationship they have to the conversation.

Natural community partners	Organizations with connections	Best means of engagement (Phone call/email)	Relationship to the issue
Families of students with disabilities
Families of students without disabilities
People with disabilities
Educators
Out-of-school providers
Community-based organizations
Business leaders
Faith-based community leaders			